Some one is not some thing because of oneness.
Some thing is not some one because of thingness.

Some where isn't here or there or nowhere or everywhere.
Where doesn't work like that.

Where are the things that have no thingness?
Is love here but not there?
Is trust now but not then?

God is now, and also then.
God is here, and also there.

God is not thing and nowhere in the full meanings of the words.
No thing.
No where.

Now.
Here.

Faith is

Hope is

Trust is nowhere

nowhere
nowhere
nowhere

now here

here now

here
now

now here

now here

here now

Here

Now
